525 MILES
OF THE
UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD
Running West from Omaha
ACROSS THE CONTINENT,
ARE NOW COMPLETED.

THIS BRINGS THE LINE TO THE EASTERN BASE of the Rocky Mountains, and it is expected that the track will be laid thirty miles further, to Evans Pass, the highest point on the road, by January. The maximum grade from the foot of the mountains to the summit is but eighty feet to the mile, while that of many eastern roads is over one hundred. Work in the rock cuttings on the western slope will continue through the winter, and there is now no reason to doubt that the entire grand line to the Pacific will be open for business in 1870.

The means provided for the construction of this Great National Work are ample. The United States grants its Six Per Cent Bonds at the rate of from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, for which it takes a second lien as security, and receives payment to a large if not to the full extent of its claim in services. These bonds are issued as each twenty mile section is finished, and after it has been examined by the United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first class road, thoroughly supplied with depots, repair shops, stations, and all the necessary rolling stock and other equipments.

The United States also makes a donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, which will be a source of large revenue to the Company. Much of this land in the Platte Valley is among the most fertile in the world, and other large portions are covered with heavy pine forests and abound in coal of the best quality.

The Company is also authorized to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an amount equal to the issue of the Government and no more. Hon. E. D. Morgan and Hon. Oakes Ames are Trustees for the Bondholders, and deliver the bonds to the Company only as the work progresses, so that they always represent an actual and productive value.

The authorized capital of the Company is One Hundred Million Dollars, of which over five millions have been paid in upon the work already done.

EARNINGS OF THE COMPANY.

At present, the profits of the Company are derived only from its local traffic, but this is already much more than sufficient to pay the interest on all the Bonds the Company can issue, if not another mile were built. It is not doubted that when the road is completed the through traffic of the only line connecting the Atlantic and Pacific States will be large beyond precedent, and, as there will be no competition, it can always be done at profitable rates.

It will be noticed that the Union Pacific Railroad is, in fact, a Government Work, built under the supervision of Government officers, and to a large extent with Government money, and that its bonds are issued under Government direction. It is believed that no similar security is so carefully guarded and certainly no other is based upon a larger or more valuable property. As the Company's are offered for the present at 95 CENTS ON THE DOLLAR, IN U. S. CURRENCY, they are the cheapest security in the market, being more than 15 per cent. lower than U. S. Stocks. They pay

SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD,

or over NINE PER CENT. upon the investment. Subscriptions will be received in Portland by and by the Company's advertised Agents throughout the United States. Remittances should be made in drafts or other funds par in New York, and the bonds will be sent free of charge by return express.

A NEW PAMPHLET AND MAP, showing the Progress of the Work, Resources for Construction, and Value of Bonds, may be obtained at the Company's Offices or of its advertised Agents, or will be sent free on application.

"We recommend the CASH plan as the best mode of Insurance. None will deny this after a few years' experience of the different plans."—The Charter Oak Life Insurance Co. (a Note Company.)

EXPERIENCE has taught business men that CREDITS must be paid for!

IN CASH COMPANIES—The first payment is the largest, every successive year reduces the premium or increases the policy, at the option of the insured. Past records of the Mutual prove that in 15 years their payments cease, but DIVIDENDS continue for life.

IN NOTE COMPANIES—The first payment is the smallest—Interest on Notes swallow Dividends and increase the future payments.

OBSERVE—Notes must be paid for by higher rates and increased insurance!

DIVIDENDS.—The Mutual declares Dividends the first and every successive year from the date of a policy holders' insurance. N. B.—The public should ascertain from other Insurance Companies if Dividends are declared annually from the start—or annually 4 YEARS AFTER insurance.

RATES in The Mutual are Lower than in any other Company doing business on the Pacific Coast—and are considerably lower than in any Note Company.

EVERY ADVANTAGE is offered by The Mutual—(excepting notes)—that other Insurance Companies can offer.

THE MUTUAL
IS THE OLDEST AND LARGEST LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

Change in Business!

WIBERG & STROWBRIDGE have disposed of their entire retail stock of Boots & Shoes, and will hereafter devote their whole attention to the WHOLESALE BOOT & SHOE BUSINESS. We have on hand 200 cases of Boots and Shoes which we offer very low, in order to make room for our spring stock direct from the East, which will arrive about the middle of March. Our arrangements for direct importations are now complete; one of our firm having located his residence near Boston, for the express purpose of buying and forwarding goods for our house in Portland. We will keep none but first class goods and we think we can do as well by dealers, as if they purchased their goods in San Francisco.

Personal.

Col. T. W. Knox has completed his Six Months in Siberia.

Dickens discreetly declines dinners from admirers in Washington.

The Antwerp Academy of Fine Arts has elected Rosa Bonheur a member.

A rival of Dickens, as a reader of Dickens, has dawned on Troy. His name is Char.

Gurney the New York photographer, and the only one who has "taken" Dickens, has already cleared over $10,000 by the enterprise.

Dickens, it is reported, has sent $1,000 to Mrs. Clemm, the mother-in-law of Edgar A. Poe, who is an inmate of a charitable institution in Baltimore, and has been for years in extremely indigent circumstances.

Miss Burdett Coutts has undertaken to pay the rates of the tenants of her model lodging houses in London, without increasing their rents, thus enabling them to obtain the franchise to which they are entitled by the Reform Bill.

The Duke of Aosta, son of Victor Emmanuel, has lately been in Venice with his bride, and foreign fashionable ladies especially English, are horrified to perceive that the Duchess wears a "cheap and common-place white petticoat."

It is reported in Paris that two of the most celebrated actresses of that capital, Mdlle Thuiler of the Odeon, and Mme Arnould Plessey, are about to become Carmelite nuns, having been converted by the eloquence of Father Hyacinthe.

The Swedish primadonna, Christine Nillson, attracts a great deal of admiration in Paris as a skater. The Empress is a frequent visitor to the Lac des Patineurs, and always skates leaning on two of the most expert of the gentlemen who may be present.

At the late State ball at the Tuileries, the most notable guests were ex-President Geffrard, conspicuous for his gorgeous uniform, and two young Japanese ladies of remarkable beauty. The dress of the Empress was white tulle over white satin, striped with gold and silver. Her diamond necklace consisted of ten rows of splendid stones, a very small row of diamonds, fastening an aigrette worn on the left side, was her only head ornament.

Ole Bull, Camille Urso, and Miss Topp were together at a party the other evening. "You play beautifully, my child," said the Norwegian to Miss Topp, "but you can't do the greatest music. No woman can; it takes biceps of a man." "My arm is strong enough," answered the young pianist, laughing, "I break my pianos as well as a man could, and Steinway has to send me a new one every week." "You see," responded Bull, turning to Madame Urso, "you see how these people treat their pianos. They bang them, they beat them, they kick them, they smash them to pieces; but one fiddles! how we love them!"

"Beggars and Borrowers."

Horace Greeley, in his last installments of "Recollections of a Busy Life," shows how widely at variance a man's theory may be with his practice. It is notorious that Greeley for many years was kept poor by the constant drain upon his purse by beggars and borrowers whom he has always encouraged. But he does not defend his conduct in this respect, believing, unlike Charles Lamb, that it may be proper "to rake into the bowels of unwelcome truth to save a half-penny." He says:

"I hate to say anything that seems calculated to steel others against the prayers of the unfortunate and necessitous; yet an extensive protracted experience has led me to the conclusion that nine tenths of those who will solicit loans of strangers or casual acquaintances are thriftless vagabonds who will never be better off than at present, or scoundrels who would not pay if they were able. In scores, if not hundreds, of cases, I have been importuned to lend from $1 up to $10 to help a stranger who had come to the city on some errand or other, had here fallen among thieves (who are far more abundant here than they ever were on the road from Jerusalem to Jericho), been made drunk, and plundered of his last cent, and who asked only enough to take him home, when the money would be promptly and surely returned. Sometimes I have lent the sum required; in other cases, I have refused it; but I cannot remember a single instance in which the promise to pay was made good. I recollect a case wherein a capable, intelligent New England mechanic, on his way from an Eastern city to work two hundred miles up the Erie Railroad, borrowed of me the means of saving his children from famine on the way, promising to pay it out of his first month's wages; which he took care never to do. This case differs from many others only in that the swindler was clearly of a better class than that from which the great army of borrowers is so steadily and bounteously recruited.

I consider it all but an axiom, that he who asks a stranger to lend him money will never pay it, yet I have known an exception. Once, when I was exceedingly poor and needy, in a season of commercial revulsion or "panic," I opened a letter from Utica and found therein $5 which the writer asked me to receive in satisfaction of a loan of that sum which I had made him—a needy stranger—on an occasion which he recalled to my remembrance. Perplexed by so unusual a message, and especially by receiving it at such a time, when every one was seeking to borrow—no one condescending to pay—I scanned the letter more closely, and at length received a solution of the problem. The writer was a patient in the State Lunatic Asylum.

A gushing youth once wrote to me to this effect: "Dear Sir: Among your literary treasures, you have doubtless preserved several autographs of our country's late lamented poet, Edgar A. Poe. If so, and you can spare one, please enclose it me, and receive the thanks of yours truly."

I promptly responded as follows:

"Dear Sir: Among my literary treasures, there happens to be exactly one autograph of our country's late lamented poet, Edgar A. Poe. It is his note of hand for $50, with my indorsement across the back. It cost me exactly $50 75 (including protest), and you may have it for half that amount. Yours, respectfully."

That autograph, I regret to say, remains on my hands, and is still for sale at the original price, despite the lapse of time and the depreciation of currency.

AN ANSWER WANTED. The New York Tribune asks the St. Louis Republican the following questions, but gets no answer:

1. Why the majority for reconstruction under the acts of Congress is far heavier in Virginia, North Carolina and Georgia, where a majority of the registered voters are whites, than South Carolina, Mississippi, Louisiana, and Florida, where the registered blacks are very much the more numerous?

2. Why some of the heaviest "Radical" majorities are given by those counties of North Carolina wherein there are from three to twenty whites registered to every black?

At a late democratic election jollification in one of the towns of northern Ohio, the committee of arrangements entrusted $25 to one of the faithful for the purchase of refreshments. In due time he made his report of expenditures—twenty-four dollars for whisky and one dollar for bread. "My God!" said one of the committee, "what are we going to do with so much bread?"

A promising youth having heard that a certain lady had been married and had a little boy and girl, laid away the fact in his memory, and some time after reproduced its results in a "mixed society" of ladies and gentlemen, as follows: "I find our tortus sell that's been dottin married—she's did it twice."

Josh Billings says he never will patronize a lottery as long as he can hire anybody else to rob him at reasonable wages.

Mrs Grundy in the Church.

The Easy Chair has long looked through the religious magazines, reviews, and journals, to find an article upon "Mrs Grundy in the Church." Mrs Grundy in society we all know. Mrs Grundy in politics is also a familiar acquaintance. But it is in the church that Mrs. Grundy nods supreme and [illegible] highest her virtuous hands in horror. She denies moral freedom of action to the [illegible] man. Erecting a certain standard of action he must conform. She spreads for him what seems to many a very soft and pleasant couch. It is the bed of Procrustes, and she tries to force him to lie upon it. Mrs. Grundy does not permit the clergyman to do what he thinks right and best. The very person whom she has invited to take spiritual charge of her, and in whose moral rectitude and just judgment she must therefore be supposed to confide, is the very one whom she will not suffer to dance, if he wishes to, or to hear any but slow music. Is slowness religious? Is a tune impious because it is merry? The [illegible] is a device of Beelzebub, is it, dear Mrs. Grundy? And what do you think of a bobolink? The accessories are bad? But what of [illegible] ice, and back biting, and spiritual pride, and jealousy, and intolerable personal go[ssip] in church?

It is extraordinary how that old woman controls us. Here is a young fellow, a preacher in the bud, and, full of the happiest [illegible]; and he goes—well, pretty often, to see as lovely and admirable a young person of the [illegible] sex as can be found anywhere; and [illegible] because this wretched old woman puts up her eye-glass and says, "Hm, ha, twice last w[eek]. What does that mean! No young clergyman ought to be suspected of flirting," the [illegible] fellow drops off, and the young person of the other sex begins to grow pale. Or there was the good old pastor of the church, so well known to those of us who are familiar with it, who after his long and faithful service proposed that the afternoon sermon should be omitted. And why not? Every Sunday afternoon he preached to a few brethren, [illegible] less asleep. It was not very unr[easonab]le that he should suppose that they would [illegible] to sleep at home. In any case it was a [illegible] tax upon him. But Mrs. Grundy was [illegible]. She could see in such a suggestion [illegible] but softening of the brain, or the overthrow of the Christian religion; and she stated her case so strongly that the rest of the [illegible] yielded, and still continue to take their Sunday afternoon nap in church instead of at home.

Why don't the ministers break Mrs. Grundy's head? Why do they not say to their societies that they will not continue to work so severely for pay so miserable? And [illegible] do not we who sit in the pews [illegible] all, if we cannot pay a large salary, and only occasionally to send a purse to our clergy, why do we not make it a point of honor [illegible] nobody shall mention the fact to the [illegible] pers? What honest man [illegible] is not a[illegible] shame when he reads that the parish[illegible] of the Rev. Mr. Blank presented him on Tu[es]day evening at his residence, with a neat purse containing twenty-five cents in new five [cent] pieces; that the Honorable Somebody, or Nobody made a few felicitous remarks to which the pastor feelingly responded? What is the object of this kind of thing? It is the glorification of the generous society that [illegible] the purse. It is not, as somebody [illegible] a beautiful public tribute of respect and [illegible] for the minister; for he knows and [illegible] and everybody knows that the sole [illegible] impression is that poor Blank must be very sore pressed indeed when he is eloquently grateful for fifty cents, or a new hat or a coat, or whatever it may be. The whole ceremony is Mrs. Grundy's attempt to eat cake and have it, at the same time.

A conscientious clergyman is the [illegible] worked man among us; and yet there are many who look upon him as a kind of [illegible] in the great hive, and who have a vague [idea] that he is pretty well paid for doing very little! It is this half contemptuous feeling which Dr. Wayland, the chief of the Baptist clergy, had in mind when he said, in his car[illegible] way; "Brethren, if one of you have a lazy, good-for-nothing son, about whom you are in [illegible], you are sure to make a Baptist minister of him." If that is the feeling, how can we expect our children to care or wish to go to church? And yet what right have we to expect that another kind of man will be [illegible] with the pittance we pay? The [illegible] proof of the generally noble character of the clergy is that, despite the pittance, they are not the kind of men Dr. Wayland described. But they do want more independence. They do want to tread down Mrs. Grundy under their feet.—Harper's Magazine.

THE OHIO "MARTYR."—When Vallandigham delivered that stupendous speech of jub[ilat]ion and glorification after the Autumn Ohio [elec]tion, he evidently labored under the impression that he was to be Ben. Wade's successor in the United States Senate. The selection of Thurman has riled him awfully, and he threat[ens] to "go [illegible]" on the friends whom he recently exalted to the skies. His Dayton organ vents his spleen in this wise:

There are men who are always thrust aside by scheming politicians and tricksters, simply because their honesty and sound Democracy are a guarantee that they will not "bolt." But this imposition may be carried too far, and we are advised that there are tens of thousands of just such Democrats in Ohio, who are determined that if hereafter the organization is to be controlled by trick and management, and perverted to the benefit of rings and cliques, those con[cern]ed will find that a remedy will be applied inside of the party, by the use of whatever means may be [illegible].

Professor Wilson's daughter was sought in marriage by Aytoun, afterwards celebrated as the editor of Blackwood and author of Songs of the Scottish Cavaliers. She accepted him, but added that he must ask papa. The modest lover was afraid to do so, and begged the young lady to broach the subject for him. She promptly sought her father and asked permission to become Mrs. Aytoun. "I'll pin my reply to you," said Christopher North, and taking up a book which had been sent to him for review, he tore out the words "With the author's compliments," pinned it to her dress, and sent her to her waiting lover.

The Trial of Impeachment.

The trial of impeachment, says the Federalist, is designed as a "method of national inquest into the conduct of public men" The model from which the idea of this institution was borrowed was found in the British Constitution Several trials of this sort have taken place before the Senate of the United States, and the practice in these cases has established a mode of proceeding a summary statement of which will be of interest

A resolution is first brought forward in the House of Representatives to accuse the party A statement of the charges accompanies the resolution. On the adoption of the resolution by the House, a Committee is appointed to impeach the party at the bar of the Senate The House then prepares articles of impeachment in regular form and presents them to the Senate, the Senate makes order for the appearance of the party at a given day, and a Committee of Managers is appointed, by the House to conduct the impeachment The Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate serves the process of which due return is made. On the appointed day the Senate resolves itself into a court of impeachment, and the Senators are solemnly sworn to do impartial justice upon the impeachment, according to the Constitution and the laws The person impeached then appears and answers to the articles or if he does not appear, the Senate proceeds ex parte to the trial. The commentators hold that additional articles may be exhibited against him at any stage of the proceedings Time is allowed him to answer all the articles, and counsel on his behalf are admitted to appear. To his answer the House of Representatives file a replication, denying the truth and validity of the defence, and averring the truth and sufficiency of the charges The Senate appoints a day for the trial, on which the Managers chosen by the House appear, witnesses are sworn at the request of either party, by order of the Senate, and the proceedings are then conducted substantially as they are in common judicial trials At the conclusion of the trial, each Senator answers to the question whether the person against whom the articles have been exhibited is guilty or not guilty This question is propounded upon each article separately If two-thirds of the Senators find him guilty upon the articles or any one of them, that body then proceeds to fix and declare the proper punishment This judgment is final and irreversable

A learned commentator remarks on this subject that "If resort is had to history, there is no reason to suppose that the possession of the power of trying impeachments has ever been a source of dangerous influence. If the power has ever been abused, it has not trampled on popular rights If it has struck down high victims it has followed, rather than led, the popular opinion If it has been an instrument of injustice, it has been from yielding too much and not too little. If it has sometimes permitted an offender to escape, it has far more frequently purified the fountains of justice, and brought down the minions of patronage to humiliation and disgrace. The provision in the Constitution of the United States holds out a deep and immediate responsibility, as a check upon arbitrary power and compels the Chief Magistrate as well as the humblest citizen to obey the majesty of the laws "

A Democratic paper informs its readers that "Alex H. Stephens takes a very despondent view of affairs at the South He sees nothing in the future but gloom and disaster, and the result of the reconstruction policy will be the destruction of either the black or the white race " No doubt the "Vice President's" patriotic soul is wrung by the most gloomy forebodings He has been able to "see nothing in the future but gloom and disaster" since the downfall of the "Government" in which he held the second place He was more hopeful in 1861, when for the sake of that place he became a traitor and perjurer In 'Democratic" estimation, the present views of this class of men on national affairs are of the highest importance; hence they take every opportunity to report them No doubt the valuable opinions of "President" Davis will be given soon

Beriah says that "secret political organizations are necessarily treasonable conspiracies against equal rights." The effrontery of a Copperhead is amazing. It is well known that Beriah Brown was chief of a secret political organization in California, which was a ramification of the treasonable Democratic societies which existed throughout the whole country during the rebellion We have several times published letters which were written to him as the head of that organization, from various parts of California John Randolph's term "doughface," has often been applied to Northern Copperheads, but it is evident that Homer's term, "dogfaced" which was applied to persons who had no sense of shame (the dog being considered by the ancients as the type of effrontery) would more accurately describe such individuals as the editor of the organ "

The proceedings of the Union Club meeting on Thursday evening were accidentally left out of yesterday morning's paper A large crowd was in attendance on the occasion, and Judge Smith's address was listened to with much interest and many manifestations of applause His principal object during the evening was to show that the Republican party did not cause and are in no respect responsible for the great rebellion but that the rebellion was incubated and hatched under a Democratic Administration This position he established by an overwhelming array of facts which no man has ever been able to refute The record of the Democratic party furnishes material in all [illegible] for the condemnation of that organization

A letter from Rocky Bar to the Boise Statesman gives information that quartz mining is going on in that district with very hopeful prospects of general success

A contract for furnishing 500 cords of red fir wood for the penitentiary brick yard has been awarded to W S Day at $? per cord

The Salem papers contain numerous accounts of the importation of 'cattle' into Polk county to vote the Copperhead ticket

THE PRESIDENT'S POWERS —The Stockton Independent truly remarks that Congress has not deprived the President of any powers guaranteed to him by virtue of his office The President attempted to usurp powers not defined as his duty and Congress has only checked him in the matter Independent of the voice of Congress he has endeavored to enforce his ideas without the authority of law and to abolish from practice the intention of laws To succeed in this he has removed men from office who recognized the laws of the country paramount to his unauthorized orders and appointed in their stead political partisans. This of course aroused Congress to more vigilant action and it was found necessary to raise a barrier against his operations Without the enactment of the Tenure of Office bill the laws of Congress became ineffectual and not worth the paper they were written upon The President is nothing more than an executive officer and has nothing whatever to do with the enactment of laws beyond giving his assent or dissent and in case of the latter a two thirds vote removes the power of his objections When Congress adopts a law it is his duty to see that law strictly enforced If he fails, it is the duty of Congress to provide means for its application In discussing the President's prerogatives Chancellor Kent who is an authority recognized by all says in his Commentaries "

Though the Constitution vests the executive power in the President and declares him Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy of the United States these powers must necessarily be subordinate to the legislative power in Congress It would appear to me to be the policy of true construction of this simple and general grant of power to the President not to suffer it to interfere with those specific powers of Congress which are more safely deposited in the legislative department

The New York Tribune thus speaks of General Grant's action in transferring the War Department to Mr Stanton upon receipt of the notification that the Senate had refused to concur in his suspension General Grant's surrender of the office of Secretary of War ad interim in obedience to the Senate of the United States and the laws of Congress, and in defiance of the known desire of his Commander in Chief that he should hold it by military force in defiance of the civil power is one of the most admirable examples of the subordination of the military to the civil power which the history of America or the world affords Surely the President, who is so fond of expressing his admiration of the great principle of subordinating the military to the civil power will send in a special message to Congress recommending a national vote of thanks to Gen Grant for his disinterested patriotism Will he do it right off?

We hear that a Democratic citizen who made a valiant defence of the President at the condolence meeting the other night, is about to be complimented in a distinguished manner The Union ladies of his neighborhood propose the presentation of a double expansion hoop skirt a red bombazine balmoral an immense waterfall and a magnificent 'palpitator ' The committee of arrangements are in rapid circulation and it is expected that the presentation ceremonies will be of a very enthusiastic character —[illegible]

The "Democratic citizen" alluded to is probably Mr Grover The presentation would not be so very inappropriate, for did not Mr Bush say some years ago that "Grover was a sexual mistake, he ought to have been a woman?" It is to be hoped that the "dry goods" will be forthcoming without delay.

A letter from Oakland informs us that F M Johnson, Collector of Internal Revenue for Douglas and adjoining counties left Roseburg about the 10th of January on a collecting tour as he said, to the counties bordering on the coast After arriving at Scottsburg he sent his horse back home He promised to return in four weeks, but that time having long since passed, it is generally supposed that he has absconded Besides leaving a good many private debts unpaid, it is pretty certain that he has left his sureties the sum of from $1 000 to $3 000 to pay

A correspondent at Express Ranch Burnt river writes that the Democrats of that section, though pretending to despise the OREGONIAN, are always eager to read it and generally 'nip' every copy they can find After finishing mine I always leave it where they can 'nip' it in the hope that it may do them some good for I believe a man might steal a Bible, and that act be the means of his soul's salvation " This is good sound benevolent doctrine, and we publish it as a hint for others.

The Roseburg paper says that Oakland is a likely town, and "looking up" decidedly.

Proceedings of the East Portland Union Grant Club

EAST PORTLAND, March 4th 1868

The Club met pursuant to adjournment President E A Clark in the chair Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved

Mr H Cason was called upon, and delivered quite a lengthy, able and patriotic address sending terror to the hearts of our Democratic friends a few of whom were present By referring to the Constitution of the United States and by quoting from various letters and speeches he proved conclusively to every unprejudiced man present that the assertions made by Messrs Page and Smith before the Democratic meeting at Oro Fino Hall on the evening of the third inst were utterly false

To our Democratic friends I would say to those of you who have not read the Constitution of the United States—and your name is Legion—as formed by our illustrious Forefathers, can obtain a copy of the same from our friend Mr Cason It is an able document, well worthy the perusal of every American citizen—more especially those who are continually harping about its gross violations by our lamented President, Abraham Lincoln and the present Congress of the United States

The meeting was then addressed by Mr Milton Hosford formerly a member of the gallant 27th Wisconsin

The speakers were frequently interrupted by loud and prolonged cheers showing that their remarks were appreciated by the Union men of East Portland

Three names were added to our Club list We now number 58 The Democrats number 60

J D BONES, Secretary

Letter from Speaker Colfax

HE DECLINES TO BE A CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR—THE POLICY CONGRESS WILL PURSUE

The following letter from Speaker Colfax to J S Harvey, Esq of Indianapolis is published in the Indianapolis Journal

Although I do not believe in declining nominations before they are tendered and have not announced myself as a candidate for any office whatever yet a frank reply is due to your inquiry relative to the Gubernatorial nomination, and the more so because the Republican County Conventions are now being held When my name was first mentioned I happened to be in Evansville and, in response to an inquiry on the subject by Col Foster of the Evansville Journal, I replied, as he afterwards published, that I was not and could not be a candidate for Governor My fellow members have honored me with an election as their Speaker the term of which office does not expire until March 4th 1869, and, since the election I declined a remunerative business offer because principle and duty required me to serve out the full term of the office whose obligations and responsibilities I had accepted It would be therefore both unjust and impossible to change the determination thus publicly announced

The hopeful boasting of our opponents is by no means new When the XXXVIIIth Congress adjourned its first session, in the summer of 1864 our enemies were even more sanguine than they now profess to be As we bade them good bye here they predicted a most sweeping victory at the polls, and, at the Chicago Convention this confidence was most exultingly and arrogantly expressed Their rejoicing declarations that Mr. Lincoln would have to flee from Washington the ensuing March in a Scotch cap, etc cannot be forgotten by any Indianian who heard them With the increased taxation, compelled by the protraction of the war, and the draft law in operation as a military necessity, all over the land during the canvass the people turned their hustings into grief and in spite of the prejudices those acts invoked against us we won the most overwhelming victory ever known at a contested Presidential election

In the summer of 1866, when the XXXIXth Congress adjourned its first session our opponents encouraged by the apostacy of the Administration which turned its whole power against the party that had conferred it were no less sanguine and boastful than they had been two years before but again the people overwhelmed them at the polls as they will once more in 1868 if by our unity and energy we prove that we desire and deserve success

Congress will again prove itself worthy of the confidence a loyal and patriotic people have so long reposed in it We shall fearlessly face and settle all the financial questions growing out of the enormous cost of the Democratic Rebellion Of course I do not attempt to predict at this early period of the session, all the details of its legislation, but speaking only as one member of the House, I have no doubt that Congress will refuse to unwisely burden the people with attempts to pay off the National debt by excessive taxation, that it will stop the contraction policy as scouted to, as it was on the urgent appeal of the Secretary of the Treasury, but which has so paralyzed business, without reducing the gold premium or bringing the country nearer to specie payments, it will not consent that so large an amount of gold shall be uselessly hoarded up in the Treasury vaults when it might be applied more profitably and wisely to the reduction of the interest on the National debt it will retrench Government expenditure in every branch of the service—army, navy, civil etc —always excepting the sacred debt of pensions to our disabled soldiers and sailors, and the families of our fallen defenders it will compel the collection of our revenue by the officers of this administration, thus placing scores of millions per year in the Treasury which are now worse than lost, it will reduce taxation largely and relieve our struggling industries as well as tax payers generally from every possible burden consistent with the maintenance of our national honor and I have the fullest faith that it will agree upon a just and acceptable financial policy upon all other questions that will neither dishonor the Republic impair its credit, nor wrong creditor or citizen Beside this it will embody and speak the national voice in the fullest protection and vindication of the rights of every American citizen native born or naturalized at home or abroad

The staple argument of our opponents is to be the charge of negro supremacy They will seek by this to darken the counsel and to invoke and excite prejudice But this issue is too plain and palpable for them to mistify or misrepresent They demand that the men of the South who used the power of their State Governments to organize the Confederacy to involve the country in a long and bloody war to hurl the enemies of the rebellion against the defenders of the Union and to carry anguish and desolation to a million hearth stones shall be reinstated in supreme and undisputed power in the governments of those States and we demand that they shall not be but that loyal men shall rule the States that loyal sacrifices saved On this issue to use the language of our lamented chief we invoke the considerate judgment of mankind and the gracious favor of Almighty God Yours truly

The Record says that "the news about impeachment is very popular among Union men on French Prairie At Scoffin's blacksmith shop about six miles from town, two young men named Cox and Campbell who went through Sherman's famous campaigns got the anvil and procuring powder fired salutes in favor of impeachment until midnight on Tuesday night [illegible] powder and using it in traitors

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

DATES TO MARCH 5

Impeachment

CHICAGO March 6 —Before the adjournment yesterday the Senate resolved to constitute itself into a high court of impeachment at one o'clock P M to day and receive the managers of impeachment from the House

WASHINGTON March 5 In the House very few members were present Many have gone home expecting that no legislative business will be done during the trial of impeachment

Elliott introduced a bill providing that in case of the removal of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court by death or resignation the duties of the office shall devolve upon the Associate Justice whose commission is senior in time until the vacancy is filled Referred to the Judiciary Committee

Julian moved that the House resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole to attend the impeachment Managers at the bar of the Senate

[illegible] Only the Managers were [illegible]

[illegible]

The Abyssinian War

NEW YORK March 4 [illegible] Annesley Bay [illegible] The letters are dated Magdala February 4th [illegible] carefully guarded [illegible] King [illegible] All were in good health [illegible] that King Theodore had left Magdala [illegible] and it was believed he would turn his arms against the Abyssinians [illegible] the British soldiers arrived

Southern Conventions

RICHMOND March 4 [illegible] to lay a resolution approving the impeachment of President Johnson was adopted by thirty five to three A report on suffrage was taken after two other reports had been defeated The first clause giving suffrage to all males over twenty [illegible] members [illegible]

CHARLESTON March 4 [illegible] the State Military Academy [illegible] compulsory was passed after an animated debate On the [illegible] the penalty for non payment shall not be a deprivation of the right of suffrage

RALEIGH March 4 —The Convention last night adopted a relief ordinance Its leading feature allows debtors one tenth of their earnings annually over their debts The article of the Constitution reported by the financial Committee has passed to the second reading It requires that the General Assembly shall provide for the prompt and regular payment of the interest on the public debt and create a sinking fund It takes from the General Assembly the power to contract any new debt until the bonds of the State are at par unless the same bill creating the debt shall levy a special tax to pay the interest The consideration of the additional section prohibiting the contracting of any new debt except by direct vote of the people was postponed for want of time

A Murderer Executed

NASHVILLE March 4 —Walker the murderer of John Bickwell was taken from the jail again last night by a mob and hanged He confessed the crime and said he was a soldier from South Carolina.

Indian Depredations.

CHICAGO March 5 —The Montana papers report that the Blackfoot Indians have inaugurated their annual raid and are infesting the Fort Benton road between the Muddy ranch and Great river They have already killed one man and run off one hundred head of stock Wells, Fargo & Co's coach was fired at several times Dispatch says Kennedy's ranch thirty five miles from Helena was burned and Mrs Kennedy and her children were carried off by the savages

By the Omaha papers we learn that 1 200 Indians have gathered around Fort Laramie and act in a threatening manner

Miscellaneous

PITTSBURG March 5 —The national Convention of Refiners and Dealers in Petroleum is being held here. They are deciding matters interesting to the trade and endeavoring to secure a reduction of the tax on oil

BALTIMORE March 5 —An immense meeting was held in the Front street theater last night to sustain President Johnson The building was densely packed Mayor Banks presided and appropriate resolutions were adopted

HARRISBURG March 6 —The Democratic State Convention met yesterday and nominated delegates to the National Convention and Presidential electors Charles E. Boyle was nominated for Auditor and Gen Wellington for Surveyor General

ATLANTA March 6 —The Convention resolved to adjourn on the 11th inst

NEW ORLEANS March 5 —Jeff Davis is here All the fire companies as they passed the St Charles Hotel gave him repeated cheers At Gen Hancock's headquarters the firemen took off their hats and the band played the Bonny Blue Flag Most of the thirty companies carried the national flag Indignation is expressed by the loyal citizens and fears are entertained of trouble to-night

THE PIONEER OIL MILL AT SALEM FLAX CULTURE —The Pioneer Oil Mill is now in full operation having capacity to manufacture about two hundred gallons of oil in ten hours The cost of the establishment is estimated at twenty thousand dollars, and the machinery combines all recent improvements including apparatus for breaking and hatcheling the flax straw Of last year's crop of seed, the company have still in hand enough to keep the mill running until July or August They have contracted with farmers for a large quantity, to be delivered next fall and desire to contract for as much more as possible They furnish seed to those desiring to cultivate and give $1 50 per bushel delivered at the mill or at any point on the river where it can be shipped for Salem For flax straw cut close to the ground and bound in bundles, the size of an ordinary sheaf of wheat they give a fair price It is estimated that the straw, properly saved and brought to market, will pay the expense of cutting threshing and marketing the seed There are four varieties of flax which Mr C Cartwright —one of the company—informs us have been tested in our soil and climate the White Cicily the Bombay, the Calcutta and the common American The White Cicily has proved the best being earlier and yielding much more both of straw and seed, to the acre The fiber is also as good or better than that of any other variety

Some of the farmers who cultivated flax crops last year, became discouraged because of the lightness of the yield of seed It will be remembered that last season was unusually backward and that not only flax but the wheat and oat crop were far less than an average yield We are told that as high as forty bushels of flax seed have been raised on a single acre in red hill land, and it is believed that with proper cultivation, and upon good soil, no surer crop can be found

It is certainly worth thoroughly testing whether flax raising will pay in Oregon A double motive should induce every enterprising farmer to at least try the experiment—self interest in adding a profitable article to the list of productions, and the general welfare in cutting off another expensive article of import, and keeping the money so expended in our own State —[illegible]

The Oregon Iron Works.—This institution has finally got to work, under circumstances which seem particularly flattering. The extensive buildings have all been completed, and now contain an amount of machinery—all running—which is almost astonishing. The large machine shop is under the supervision of Mr. T. C. Trengove, who seems to have a peculiar genius for keeping things in brisk motion. With its crowds of men and machines all in motion, the room wears the appearance of a vast bee hive in which every individual bee is "buzzing round." The works are at present engaged upon two large steam engines for the People's Transportation Company, and another for Carter, Hayden & Co. The cylinders of the two first are of 16-inch bore and 60 inch stroke—the largest ever cast in this State. The shaft for the P. T. Co.'s new steamer at Canemah now in one of the lathes, is 21 feet long. It has to be taken out of doors to turn it end for end in the lathe. The cylinder for Carter, Hayden & Co.'s engine is of 16-inch bore and 60-inch stroke. The new "boring machine" is a massive institution and there is nothing like it in the State and probably not in California. It will do work—planing and boring large cylinders or wheels—that no lathe can do. A band wheel, for instance, of 9 feet di[illegible], can be laid upon the revolving bed and the machine will turn the outside and inside surfaces of the rim and drill the centre for the shaft. The depth to which it will bore is about 40 inches. The machinery of this [illegible] mill was purchased at the East. The massive cast frame work was put up here, the entire cost being about $6,000. The casting of the cylinders mentioned above was done under the supervision of Mr. John Mallaroy, [illegible] of the foundry. They are among the most difficult of castings on account of the great mass of molten iron which must be used. We noticed, also, several stove castings, for Froidman & Co., which, from the sand, were smoother and better looking even than the originals used as patterns. The company is now employing forty men, and owing to the press of work, will be compelled to hire ten or twelve more immediately.

From Astoria.—Dr. Benson, of the Advocate, a passenger by the Continental, writes home from Astoria a rather [illegible] letter, containing accounts of incidents occurring during the steamer's delay, from which we take the following extracts: "Before retiring, a "Latter Day Saint" obtained permission to "lecter on the gatherin' of Israel agin." He is a stout young man brought up in [illegible]. "He has only been propheeyin' 'bout a year," as he told us. Commencing at the top of his voice in a [illegible] tone, he harangued with great volubility for about twenty minutes, when he sat down exhausted. He made out nothing except that he himself was an un[illegible] ignoramus and unmitigated humbug, some one [illegible] a hat around and took up a collection which amounted to two bits and a horn button. He claimed to have raised a church of thirty members in Linn county. I omitted to mention that on Saturday evening one of the "Progressive" persuasion managed to get a room full of the susceptible together at two bits a head, to be lectured on spiritualism. When through, the [illegible] asked and obtained leave to talk a little. He [illegible] the poor Toddite with words, quoting glibly from Andrew Jackson Davis, and other rapping [illegible], to prove that spiritualism is self-contradictory, corrupt, corrupting and of the pit. The rapper [illegible], and groaned for a few minutes time in which to get [illegible] in rapport with the spirits, so that he [illegible] give a [illegible] table reply, but before his clairvoyant [illegible] supervened, the crowd dispersed, leaving him in disgrace. The conquering Saint came back to the ship boasting that he had 'guv the feller goss—he wasn't goin' to let the ole devil bust up religion.'"

[illegible] Court—Upton, Judge.—Proceedings of Friday, 6th inst:

[illegible] and E. B. Dufur vs. W. Legg; continued until [illegible]

[illegible] vs. Jos Taylor; motion for a new trial overruled, [illegible] sentenced to imprisonment at hard labor, [illegible] for two years. Notice of appeal was [illegible] motion for certificate of cause, thereof made, [illegible] refused this morning.

[illegible] vs E. Cabalin; action on account for [illegible] due on dissolution of co-partnership business; [illegible] of jury for plaintiff in the sum of $700.

[illegible] Matters.—By request, we publish the following note in reply to a statement recently made in the Albany Journal. It needs no explanation:

"To the Albany Journal:—In your issue of March 2d, [illegible] you say the clipper Winged Arrow sailed last [illegible] and arrived at San Francisco on [illegible] 26th, assigned to Williams, Blanchard & Co. [illegible] a copy of her manifest before us, and she has [illegible] of anything connected with railroads [illegible] of freight." I called at the office of Messrs. [illegible]ard & Co., in San Francisco on Feb[illegible] and saw the list and spoke to Mr. Williams of [illegible]. There are thousands of dollars worth of ma[illegible] connected with railroads on the Winged Arrow [illegible] to the contractors of the Oregon Central Railroad Company, of which Governor Woods is President. [illegible] further state that a telegram has been sent to [illegible] Flint, Peabody & Co., of San Francisco, to ship [illegible] by the first vessel up for this city.

Truly yours, A M LORYEA"

[illegible] of Oregon Flax Seed.—Dr. Loryea who [illegible] from a lengthy visit to California, informs the Record that he visited the [illegible] oil mill there, and was informed by Mr. Bruner, engineer, and [illegible] of the mill, that the Oregon flax seed, a [illegible] was sent them, was superior to any they had ever received. The company intend encouraging the culture of flax seed in this State by offering [illegible] at fair rates. Dr. Loryea also states that [illegible] the Corn Exchange at San Francisco, Oregon wheat is [illegible] as the best and most valuable to be shipped [illegible]. A committee of the Corn Exchange was [illegible] the first day of January to ascertain if there [illegible] in any great quantity in that State. [illegible] reported that the supply remaining was insufficient [illegible], and that California must depend on a [illegible] supply from Oregon.

[illegible] Road.—The Record of the 5th says: "Now that [illegible] in connection with our railroad enterprise [illegible] a more reliable shape, and [illegible] seems almost at hand, the O. C. R. R. Co., as we are informed, by vote of its directors will assume a more extended sphere, for many prominent gentlemen through this valley are invited to join the organization, so as to divest it of [illegible] sectional character. The few who have [illegible] the first organization were merely a nucleus, or [illegible]. Now that the work wears a look of success, it is well to invite a more extended co-operation, to [illegible] general sympathy."

[illegible] — No one is authorized to sell copies of the [illegible] for a greater price than 12½ cents [illegible], and those persons who may have been charged more than that price, by newsboys, have been imposed [illegible] contrary to the explicit instructions given by the [illegible]. Hereafter no newsboy will be furnished the [illegible] who violates the confidence of the proprietor by [illegible], under any circumstances, more than the [illegible] price.

[illegible] Ball Monday Night.—The first annual ball of [illegible] No. 65, I. O. B. B., will take place at Oro [illegible] Hall, Monday night. The preparations for the occasion warrant the expectation that it will be the ball of [illegible]. The proceeds are to be added to the fund of the order of B'nai B'rith for the relief of the widows and [illegible], a benevolent appropriation and one which ought [illegible] the ball to all the dancing community, at least.

A[illegible].—Thursday night, while the Herald press was at work, George Townsend, night watchman, entered the press room, and while standing near the engine, [illegible] hand upon some part of the little machine with the [illegible] that he "could stop it." Quicker than wink, one of his fingers was caught and cut off clean, near the first joint. The accident was not, however, serious enough to keep George indoors, and he was patrolling his beat as usual last night.

[illegible] Alaska. It is said that a man who professes to have found gold diggings of fabulous richness in the [illegible] of Stickeen river, Alaska, last summer is [illegible] a company to go there this spring. His account of his experiences there last season, has the appearance of a genuine cock and bull story, and if anybody goes on the strength of it, they will probably find themselves sold cheap.

From the Upper Columbia.—We learn from a gentleman who came down on the Hunt, yesterday, that the ice is gorged at Hellgate, and piled up at least thirty feet high. There are no hopes of navigation to Umatilla, [illegible] within the next week or ten days. The roads have [illegible] thawed out, and are, consequently, in a most horrible condition. Travel is almost suspended.

Baptist Festival.—The ladies connected with the Baptist church are making preparations for a festival on Wednesday evening, at the basement of the church building, corner of Alder and Fourth streets. The proceeds of the festival are to be devoted to the building of an ea[illegible] and such other improvements as the sum realized will [illegible]plish.

Produce.—Arrived per steamer Senator from Oregon City, yesterday, 293 sks feed, 689 bags wheat, 15 boxes eggs, 1 sk dried fruit and 97 boxes apples. Per Alert, 2,000 qr sks flour, 525 bags wheat, 199 boxes apples, 43 [illegible] potatoes 10 boxes eggs, 2 coops chickens.

County Court.—Proceedings of Friday. Petition for license to sell liquor in quantities less than one quart at the Oregon Hotel, in East Portland; petition granted.

Estate of Sarah A. Thomas: confirmation of sale of lots 5 and 6 in block 120 in East Portland.

Sailed.—The steamer John L. Stephens was delayed at San Francisco till yesterday morning, instead of sailing on Thursday as first advertised. She may be looked for Monday night.

Steamer for Eugene.—The steamer Enterprise will leave Oregon City this morning for Eugene City and intermediate landings.

Lutheran Services.—Lutheran services will continue to be held at [illegible] o'clock each Sabbath, during the present month conducted by Rev A Myers pastor. The forenoon services lately announced will be deferred for the present owing to the unfinished condition of the M. E Church.

Teutonians.—A meeting of the Club will be held this (Saturday) evening at 7½ o'clock.
By order of the President.

The Pain Killer Abroad.

The following correspondence will show something of the estimation in which Perry Davis' Pain Killer is held on the shores of the Mediterranean. It is not surprising that a medicine that receives such testimonials as this from abroad, should find well sustained and increasing appreciation at home.

U. S. Consulate, Tunis, Dec 27, 1866.

To the Proprietors of Davis' Pain Killer, Providence, R. I.—Gentlemen:—The enclosed has just been received from my friend Tulin late Consul General of Norway and Sweden and of Prussia in this place. No comment is needed. Truly yours AMOS PERRY

Genoa, December 16, 1865.

Dear Sir:—Accept thanks for this third supply of Davis "Pain Killer." This medicine has often relieved me of serious indisposition, and I would not on any account consent to be without it, both for myself and my family.

I have recommended it to my late colleagues and friends in Tunis and Genoa, and at my request one of the largest druggists in this city has sent an order to New York to meet the demand in this place.

Yours truly G. A. TULIN,
Ex-Consul Gen'l of Sweden, Norway & Prussia in Tunis.
Hon. Amos Perry, Consul General, Tunis. fe26daw1m

CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS 625 AND 627 FRONT ST
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.
PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.
Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water, invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels,
Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.
REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.
Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or
PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.

As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

PORTLAND, March 6, 1868.

The money market presents but slight change of features since our last report. Gold at New York, on the 5th, closed at 141. Legal Tenders same day at San Francisco, 70¾@71¼.

The holders of U. S. 7 30 notes have been notified by advertisement that the First National Bank of Portland will convert such notes into 5 20 bonds drawing coin interest half-yearly, if presented before maturity. It must be borne in mind that the notes must be converted before the 15th of June or 15th of July, according to their respective dates, and should be forwarded in time to reach Washington before they fall due. If any are held here, the time is getting short in which their conversion can be effected.

As we last week predicted, there has been a marked improvement in the jobbing business generally in this city, immediately consequent upon the resumption of navigation in every direction. Produce alone is dull, and this is [illegible] of the overstocked condition of the market and the extremely limited facilities for transportation. Every [illegible] house in the city is packed full and resort has already been had to storing in all sorts of vacant places, in parts of the city remote from the wharves. It is [illegible] to see what is to be done with arrivals should they continue as freely as for the last month. With a [illegible] of not less than 7,000 to 10,000 tons now on hand and an average of 250 to 300 tons arriving each day, all which is seeking immediate shipment even at the high rates charged by the steamship line, it is incomprehensible that the company controlling our coasting trade should neglect to provide adequate tonnage. The only [illegible] supposition is that the steamship company is entirely in the interest of the San Francisco jobbers [illegible] lose nothing by keeping the Oregon supplies back till San Francisco stocks can be worked off.

We quote the jobbing prices of produce generally as last week; but wheat and flour are nominal for the reasons [illegible]. In the buying prices there are a few slight improvements. Green apples are 75c to $1 00, as per [illegible] variety—a decided advance. Dried apples [illegible] at 5@6c. Oats have advanced 5 to 10c. Ground [illegible] is at $30@35 ⅌ ton—an improvement. Wheat is nominal at $1@1 10. Dayton mills flour is reduced 25c [illegible] from last week's quotations. Bacon [illegible] as heretofore; shoulders weaker [illegible] supply limited and prices tending to an advance. Eggs are plentiful and quotations [illegible].

In the [illegible] merchandise market there is a decided [illegible] the last week has been [illegible] than at any time since the setting in of winter [illegible] double, and in some lines, [illegible] of the corresponding period of last year. [illegible] March has [illegible] ever opened with a more active [illegible] from the Willamette valley and [illegible] from the Columbia valley have been [illegible] the week, and the prospects for a continuance of activity are very cheering. In the prices of [illegible] we have few changes to note. There is a [illegible] to higher figures. Staple dry goods [illegible] prices of last week. Well assorted stocks [illegible] were received by the last steamer and trade [illegible]. Jobbers anticipate a lively spring [illegible], similar improvement in trade is [illegible] and [illegible] are arriving [illegible] as to assortment. [illegible] of the city, with the [illegible] were rarely [illegible] at this [illegible] of the year.

The [illegible] are New York quotations on the 5th: Flour [illegible], $12 [illegible] 75. Wheat, steady at $3 20 @3 [illegible] lots. Wool, 29@30c. At San Francisco, on the 4th, flour was $7 50, wheat [illegible] 15 per hundred.

[illegible] (Goods) [illegible] Cut- [illegible] Steel Plows, [illegible] Axes, [illegible] $17 00; [illegible] $12 [illegible] 74; Spades, [illegible] @17 00; [illegible] do. 3 tine [illegible] and D. Medical.

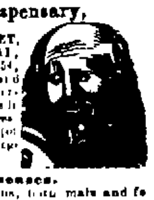
TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,



616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these terrible life destroying maladies, see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who, with bogus sworn to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 253.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 253 ON THE LETTER.

Consultation FREE.

INSTITUTE.

 CONSULTATION, IN ALL CASES, FREE.

 CURES GUARANTEED, OR NO PAY REQUIRED.

 IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRESY MAINTAINED.

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in 18[illegible], and which have done so much to secure the reputation of the Institute, are still adhered to, affording those in need of medical aid, the certainty of cure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so great importance to the sick as to know where to find a physician whose skill and humanity give assurance of proper and delicate treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the attention of those of both sexes who are suffering or in need to the invariable success that has marked the career of the Institute in the seventeen years of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this connection to enumerate all the complaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels his duty to call especial attention to that terrible scourge

SEMINAL WEAKNESS

That is sapping with insidiousness the very life of its victims; in the treatment and cure of which the Institute has earned so enviable a reputation.
